ATTACHMENT TO 2007 CPNI CERTIFICATION OF DVT TELECOM CORP.

The operating procedures of Des Vieux Telecoms, Inc. ("DVT") ensure compliance with the requirements set forth in section 64.2001 et seq. of the Commission's rules (hereinafter "CPNI rules"). DVT only offers one category of telecommunications service—international carrier's carrier service—and therefore, any use, disclosure or access to its customers' CPNI falls within 47 C.F.R. § 64.2001(a). This rule permits DVT to use, disclose or permit access to CPNI for the purpose of providing or marketing its wholesale transport service without customer approval.

Moreover, DVT takes several steps to discover and protect against attempts to gain unauthorized access to its customers' CPNI, as well as properly authenticate its customers prior to disclosure to customers. First, DVT specifically commits in its customer contracts to protect from unauthorized disclosure all customer data relating to the service provided and customer lists, as well as any other information that might be reasonably presumed to be confidential in nature. These contractual provisions prohibit the disclosure of this information to third parties without the customer's express written consent. The only exceptions are disclosures to third parties who require the information to assist in the provision of the service and who are bound by non-disclosure agreements, and disclosures pursuant to governmental or judicial order or in connection with a law enforcement investigation. Second, any disclosures of CPNI to DVT's customers are only made to the customer's dedicated account representative. Third, the only non-aggregate information pertaining to the transmission of specific telephone calls to which DVT has access in connection with its carrier's carrier services is limited to the called number and the associated DVT carrier-customer. This information is not associated with the name, address or any other identifying information of any retail end user. Fourth, DVT carrier's carrier customer CPNI or any call detail/call records are not available online or in a store-front, which further reduces the risk of unauthorized disclosure.

Finally, DVT handles billing functions itself, and DVT does not use CPNI to market its services, and DVT limits to three the number of employees authorized to access CPNI. These employees access the information only for purposes of and to the extent necessary to provide the service, render bills and handle any related legal issues. They are trained in the proper handling and use of this information, which is not only protected under the CPNI rules, but is also commercially-sensitive information that DVT carefully guards for its own business interests. Any employee using, disclosing or providing access to this information for any other purpose would be subject to discipline, including potential dismissal.
